Protecting your Privacy when you notify us of a change in your personal details

1. We, Bendigo Bank, collect your personal information so that we can change your personal details and can continue to administer the financial products that you have with us. Collection of some of this information is required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006. If you provide incomplete or incorrect information we may be unable to change your personal details or continue to administer the financial products you have with us.
2. We may use your personal information to perform our business functions (for example internal audit, operational risk, product development and planning). We may also use your personal information to confirm your details (for example contacting your employer to confirm your employment and income details).

We treat your personal information as confidential and only disclose it to others where necessary. For example, we usually disclose your information to organisations to whom we outsource functions such as mailing and printing houses, plastic card and cheque production bureaux, electronic network administrators, IT providers, our agents and specialist advisers such as accountants and solicitors. Other disclosures usually include joint account holders, account operators and account applicants, insurers, intermediaries, valuers, other credit providers, credit reporting bodies and government authorities. If we have provided you with credit, we may also disclose your information to organisations (such as ratings agencies, administrators and trustees) for the purpose of assessing the risk in purchasing and effecting the purchase of that credit by way of securitisation arrangement. Your information may also be disclosed to our related entities, our joint venture partners and Community Bank® companies where its confidentiality is maintained at all times.
3. Some of the organisations we disclose your personal information to may be located overseas. Where an organisation is located overseas we will either take reasonable steps to ensure that it complies with Australian privacy laws or we will seek your consent to the disclosure.
4. In most cases you can gain access to and seek correction of your personal information. Should you wish to do so, or if you have any queries about your information, please contact us on 1300 361 911.
5. We may use your personal information to inform you about financial products and services that are related to those you have with us or other products and services we think you may be interested in. These may be products and services provided by us, our related entities or other entities we are associated with. If you do not wish to receive any marketing material from us please contact us on 1300 236 344 (1300 BENDIGO).
6. You should also read our Privacy Policy. Our Privacy Policy contains information about:
  - a. how you can access and seek correction of your personal information;
  - b. how you can complain about a breach of the privacy laws by us and how we will deal with a complaint;
  - c. if we disclose personal information to overseas entities, and where practicable, which countries those recipients are located in.
 Our Privacy Policy is available on our website www.bendigobank.com.au or by telephoning 1300 361 911.

I/We confirm the details on this form are correct and that I have read and agree to the privacy collection statement above.

Customer Authorisation

You confirm that you ask us to authorise one or more other people to access and operate your account. A person who is authorised to operate your account is called an authorised signatory. This includes:

- a. A person who is authorised to access and operate your account without a card - an authorised signatory;
- b. A person who is authorised to access and operate your account with a card - an additional cardholder; and
- c. A third party authorised by you to use Bendigo Phone Banking or Bendigo e-banking to access or access and operate your nominated account and who is registered with us as an authorised user for use of Bendigo Phone Banking or Bendigo e-banking - an authorised user.
- d. You consent to us giving authorised signatory information about your account.

You are liable for any action taken by your authorised signatories, authorised cardholder or authorised user.

We are entitled to act on all instructions given by your authorised signatories in accordance with your operating instructions (including appointing a new authorised signatory or revoking the authority of an authorised signatory) unless the authorised signatory is an authorised user who can only access, but not operate, your account in which case we will only act on the instructions of that person in so far as they relate to accessing your account. We are not required to make any inquiries in relation to any instructions received by an authorised signatory in relation to the operation of your account.

When signing on behalf of an organisation: I/we confirm we are authorised to sign on the behalf of this organisation. I/we also confirm that the rules/constitution of the organisation do not limit or prevent this maintenance from occurring.

I/We confirm the details on this form are correct and request Bendigo Bank to act on my/our instructions as specified and I have read and agree to the privacy collection statement above.
